WEBSITE TERMS

This is the website of Kaymac Kaymac Holdings (Pty) Ltd or any subsidiary or associated company (collectively "Kaymac"). Use of this web site is subject to the following terms of use:

1. The content and design of the website pages are subject to copyright owned by Kaymac or used under licence from third party copyright owners. You are welcome to print pages for your personal use but no part of this website may be reproduced or transmitted for any other purpose.
2. From time to time this website may feature content related to products and services. Such content is intended to provide general guidance only and should not be regarded as a substitute for making proper enquiries directly in relation to your particular circumstances.
3. While all reasonable steps are taken, Kaymac cannot guarantee that this website is free from destructive code and requests you inform us should you suspect any virus may have come from this website.
4. This website is made available for viewing on the basis that Kaymac and/or its employees makes no warranties or representations and will not be liable for any loss, damage or expense of whatever nature, arising out of or in connection with the use of this website or reliance upon the content of this website.
5. Kaymac reserves the right to effect alterations and/or additions to this website and/or these terms without notice.
6. From time to time this website may also include links to other websites. These links are provided in order to enhance the interest of other featured content and are not intended to signify that Kaymac endorses or otherwise has any responsibility for the content of the linked website.
7. Your use of this website and any dispute arising out of the website is subject to the laws of South Africa. Any dispute arising out of the use or publication of this website is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of South Africa.
8. You are not permitted to: use any automated means (like spiders or crawler interface) to access this website or its features, extract data, or otherwise interfere with, or modify functionality or page rendering; or transmit or post any file that may be contaminated or contain destructive elements that interfere with the performance of the website, for instance worms or viruses; or try to bypass our firewalls and other security measures used to prevent or limit access to any content, area or code of the website; or use the website in such a manner as to infringe the rights of another.
9. By sharing any contribution (including any text, photographs, graphics, video or audio) with Kaymac you agree to grant to Kaymac, free of charge, permission to use the material in any way it wants (including modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) for Kaymac services in any media worldwide.

10. When you access our Internet Services, we may use cookies (small text files containing a unique ID number which are placed on your PC or device) and similar technologies including scripts, embedded web links and web beacons. We use cookies to assist us with activities such as: Enabling you to sign in to our Internet Services; Authenticating you; Keeping track of information, you have provided to us; Improving your browsing experience; Customising our interactions with you; Storing and managing your preferences and settings; Compiling statistical data; Analysing the performance and usability of our Internet Services; Measuring traffic patterns for our Internet Services; and Determining which areas of our Internet Services have been visited. These technologies collect information that your browser sends to our Internet Services including your browser type, information about your IP address (a unique identifier assigned to your computer or device which allows your PC or device to communicate over the Internet), together with the date, time and duration of your visit, the pages you view and the links you click. Our Internet Services may also contain web beacons or similar technologies from third party analytics providers, through which they collect information about your activities across our Internet Services to help us compile aggregated statistics.
